Yolo FCU Plans To Expand Service in Davis

Yolo County, CA - Yolo Federal Credit Union announced today that they have completed purchase of property located at 5th and G in downtown Davis in order to build a new full service branch.

“We are eager to find a suitable location to expand our services to the Davis community,” stated Clyde Brooker, President/CEO of Yolo FCU. “Our Davis Membership has grown substantially in the past several years and we hope to provide a new central location in the downtown area to make it convenient for members that walk or bike to complete their banking.” Planning for the new branch will begin immediately with occupancy estimated for early 2012.

“We are Yolo County’s credit union and premier mortgage lender. With a wide variety of financial services, including our expanded business services, we are excited to bring a new beautiful full service branch to our current and future Davis Members” says Brooker.

Yolo Federal Credit Union has been Yolo County’s credit union, serving our local communities for over 55 years. Membership is available to anyone that lives, works or attends school in Yolo County.
