

Website Privacy Policy

Yolo Federal Credit Union is committed to making your online experience as secure as possible as you browse through our website. Below you will find our online privacy practices. To read the complete Privacy Policy, click here.

IP addresses

IP addresses are collected for the sole purpose of tracking information and to compile statistics to help improve the site so that its users will find it more helpful and informative. The information is used solely for these analytical purposes and is discarded after use. IP address information is not distributed to third parties.

Cookies

Cookies are temporary internet files that help websites recognize returning visitors and to keep track of personal preferences online. We use cookies to enhance your experience on our website and assist in our marketing efforts. We also share information about your use of our site with our social media, advertising and analytics partners who may combine it with other information that you've provided to them or that they've collected from your use of their services. You consent to our cookies if you continue to use our website. You can prevent cookies from being placed on your computer by selecting the "Preferences" in your computer's internet browser and deleting your browsing history. Please note: If your cookies are disabled, you may have to reauthenticate your online banking.

Third Party Links

Yolo Federal Credit Union provides links to external sites for the convenience of its members. By continuing to these external sites you will be directed to an external website owned and operated by a third party. These external websites are not controlled by Yolo Federal Credit Union and Yolo Federal Credit Union makes no representation or warranty, express or implied, to the user concerning the information, content, presentation, accuracy or opinion of these sites or the quality, safety, or suitability of any software found on these sites. The privacy policies of Yolo Federal Credit Union do not apply to external sites and users should consult the privacy policies on these sites for further information.

Protecting Minors

We do not knowingly market to or solicit information from minors under 18, nor do we post offensive material that is harmful to minors. We recognize that protecting minors' identities and privacy online is important and that the responsibility to do so rests with both the online industry and with parents. We are not responsible for the data collection and use practices of nonaffiliated third parties to which our websites may link.
