

Yolo Federal Credit Union

Yolo Federal Small Business Relief Grant $5,000

Eligibility/Criteria

Open to any small business that is located in and serves Yolo County. Yolo FCU will reference the Small Business Administration \(SBA\) table of size standards to determine if the nominee is considered a small business. The business must nominate themselves.

1. Each nomination must include a completed, online nomination form with a compelling story (maximum of 500 words) that includes the following:
 - a. Explains what the business will do with the money.
 - b. How the money would help them during this time.
 - c. How it would give back to our local community.
2. Nominations will be done online at yolofcu.org/small-business-relief-grant. You can request a paper nomination form at (530) 668-2700 or at any branch location and the nominations must be mailed to:

Yolo FCU
Attn: Yolo Federal Small Business Relief Grant
PO Box 657
Woodland, CA 95776
3. All nominations must be submitted by May 25, 2020. Mail-in nominations must be postmarked May 25, 2020, to qualify.
4. Businesses owned by Credit Union employees and officials are not eligible to nominate their small business for the Relief Grant.
5. All nominations will go through a grant review process conducted by the Yolo FCU Marketing Department. The Marketing Department will then select the top 6 nominations with the most compelling stories and the ability to have the greatest impact on Yolo County. The top 6 nominations will be submitted to a public vote through the Yolo FCU website. The top two nominees, as voted on by the public, will each be awarded a $5,000 Relief Grant.
6. Only 1 nomination per business will be accepted.
7. Only 1 vote per IP address will be accepted.
8. Awarded grantees will be announced via social media, in a press release in local publications, and on our website.
9. See the Yolo Federal Small Business Relief Grant Guidelines and Agreements for more information.
10. Submission of your nomination indicates that you have read and agreed to the Relief Grant Guidelines and Agreements.
