FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Yolo Federal Credit Union Donates $30,000 to Suicide Prevention of Yolo County

Yolo County, CA: Yolo Federal Credit Union announced that it has donated $30,000 to Suicide Prevention of Yolo County through a donation matching program in partnership with The Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco. “COVID-19 has significantly impacted the mental-wellness of many individuals throughout Yolo County,” said Jenee Rawlings, Yolo FCU President/CEO. “Suicide Prevention of Yolo County provides an essential service to support those who are in crisis.”

The mission of the Suicide Prevention of Yolo County is to provide crisis prevention and intervention, education, and community outreach services. “Our crisis line has seen an increase in calls from those who are suffering from the situation with COVID-19” said Diane Sommers, Executive Director. “Yolo Federal’s $30,000 donation will have not only an immediate, but a long-lasting impact.”

The organization operates a volunteer supported suicide prevention crisis line and partners with other local services in Yolo County. “It is heartwarming that many members of our community volunteer their time to support this organization,” said Kelley Jacobsen, Yolo FCU Vice President of Marketing & Operations. “We are happy that our donation will help provide necessary supplies to keep the volunteers safe and extend their reach in the community.”

The Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco (FHLBank San Francisco) is a member-driven cooperative helping local lenders in Arizona, California, and Nevada build strong communities, create opportunity, and change lives for the better. In response to the escalating economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the communities they serve, FHLBank San Francisco is making $1.8 million in matching funds available to member financial institutions donating to nonprofits or contributing to local small businesses. Members accessing the matching fund can directly assist their choice of local nonprofits and essential small businesses.

Yolo Federal Credit Union has been serving the local communities for over 67 years. Membership is available to anyone that lives, works, worships, or attends school in Yolo County. Yolo FCU is federally insured by the NCUA. To learn more about Yolo Federal Credit Union, visit www.yolofcu.org or call (530) 668-2700.
