FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Pennie Holck VP of Human Resources and Organizational Development to Retire

Yolo County, CA: Yolo Federal Credit Union announced that Pennie Holck, Vice President of Human Resources and Organizational Development, will be retiring effective December 31, 2022.

Holck joined Yolo Federal as a receptionist in 1980 and was quickly promoted to Loan Officer. “Pennie is a role model of professionalism and adaptability. Her commitment to excellence helped her advance her career from Receptionist to Loan Manager and ultimately to a member of the Executive Leadership team,” said Jenee Rawlings, Yolo FCU President/CEO. Before being named Vice President of Human Resources and Organizational Development in 2018, Holck served in various leadership roles, including Assistant Accounting Manager, Member Service Manager, Vice President of Financial Services, Administration Manager, and Director of Human Resources.

“Pennie is passionate about her work and has played an important part in Yolo FCU’s evolution over the last four decades,” said Rawlings. During Holck’s tenure with the credit union, she has been instrumental in implementing several products, services, and systems, including Visa Credit Cards, Automated Loan Processing System, and HELOCs.

Over the last 15 years, Holck has focused on the advancement of HR systems, improvement of recruitment and talent management, and has been the consummate champion for all Yolo Federal employees. “Pennie has coached and guided countless employees and has been instrumental in the development of our positive company culture.”

Holck’s successor will be announced before her retirement date.
