FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Yolo Federal Credit Union Donates $3,000 to Trevor Project

Yolo County, CA: Yolo Federal Credit Union announced they donated $3,000 to The Trevor Project. The Trevor Project is the world's largest suicide prevention and crisis intervention organization for LGBTQ young people. Its goal is to serve 1.8 million crisis contacts annually by the end of its 25th year while continuing to innovate its core services. "At Yolo Federal, we have defined corporate values that encourage authenticity, celebrates differences, and ensure everyone has an opportunity for success," said Jenee Rawlings, Yolo FCU President/CEO. "Mental illness is a serious public health crisis that affects individuals, families, and entire communities. We believe in the mission of the Trevor project and are proud to actively support the LGBTQ community."

The Trevor Project uses its guiding principles, including diversity & inclusion, youth-centricity, and quality, to make important decisions about programs, events, and staffing. The organization focuses on five key programs: crisis services, peer support, research, public education, and advocacy. "We are committed to helping our community thrive; that means we support organizations that value equality," said Matt Lane, Yolo FCU CFO. "As a member of the LGBTQ community, I am proud to work for an organization that demonstrates daily how to be an ally."

Yolo Federal is committed to supporting organizations that provide invaluable services. "At Yolo Federal, we believe in supporting organizations like the Trevor Project, that has paved the way for LGBTQ support," said Kelley Jacobsen, Yolo FCU Vice President of Marketing & Operations. "We support organizations that advance inclusivity efforts and advocate for those in need."

Yolo Federal Credit Union has served the local communities since 1954. Membership is available to anyone who lives, works, worships, or attends school in Yolo County. Yolo FCU is federally insured by the NCUA. To learn more about Yolo Federal Credit Union, visit www.yolofcu.org or call (530) 668-2700.
